

NOTE TO USERS OF HISTORICAL STATISTICS

This report contains the latest revised statistics from the Survey of Industrial Research and Development for 1953–99.

The Industrial Research and Development Information System (IRIS) provides online access to an historical database with more than 2,500 statistical tables containing all industrial research and development (R&D) data published by NSF from 1953 through 1998. IRIS is available on the Division of Science Resources Statistics web site at: <http://www.nsf.gov/sbe/srs/iris/start.htm>.
